DEFINITIONSWelcoming, Caring, Respectful, and Safe Learning Environments

A welcoming, caring, respectful, and safe learning environment is one where students and staff are protected from bullying, discrimination, harassment, and violence within school facilities, on school grounds, on school buses, and during school sponsored/authorized co/extra-curricular activities. This applies whether contact is face-to-face, by phone, fax, e-mail, Internet or Intranet, or by any other means of communication. All those involved with the jurisdiction including trustees, staff (employees, volunteers, and contractors), students, parents, and visitors must share in the responsibility for eliminating bullying, discrimination, harassment, and violence. The Board prohibits bullying, harassment, discriminatory, and violent behaviours and expects allegations of such behaviours to be investigated in a timely and respectful manner.

Bullying

Repeated and hostile or demeaning behaviour by an individual where the behaviour is intended by the individual to cause harm, fear or distress to another individual in the school community, including psychological harm or harm to the individual's reputation. Bullying tends to be subtle and consists of an accumulation of many small incidents, each of which, when taken in isolation and out of context, seem trivial. Bullying may include:

Verbal Bullying—name calling, sarcasm, teasing, spreading rumors, threats, discriminatory references, unwanted comments.

Social Bullying—mobbing, scapegoating, excluding others from a group, humiliating others, gossiping, gestures or graffiti intended to put others down.

Physical Bullying—hitting, poking, pinching, chasing, shoving, coercing, destroying.

Cyber Bullying—using the internet or text messaging to intimidate, threaten, put down or spread rumors about someone.

Harassment

Improper conduct (physical or verbal behavior) by any individual that is directed at and offensive to or humiliates another individual, and that the individual knew or ought reasonably to have known would cause offence or harm. It comprises objectionable act(s), comment(s) or display(s) that demean, belittle, or cause personal humiliation or embarrassment, and any act of intimidation or threat. It also includes discrimination within the meaning of the Canadian and Alberta Human Rights Acts. Harassment consists of repeated and persistent behaviours towards an individual to torment, undermine, frustrate or provoke a reaction from that person. It is the synergy and repetitive characteristic of the behaviours that constitute the conduct as harassment. However, one single incident can constitute harassment when it is demonstrated that it is severe and has a significant and lasting impact on the complainant. Harassment also includes:

 - 4.3. Should the complainant so request, the investigation shall be stopped at any point except where the respondent requests the investigation continue.
