

1. Know yourself! You need to be self-directed and able to manage your time to be successful in dual credit.
2. Talk to your teachers and administration to have a minimum of 1 spare in your schedule, if you are also in sports or other outside activities, I would recommend 2 spares.
3. Attend the Lethbridge College virtual orientation and information night on May 5th @ 6:00pm.
4. Be committed by: checking college emails daily, complete all assignments, communicate with instructors and Off-Campus Teacher.
5. Recognize that you will be treated as an adult learner which means :
 - Accepting responsibility for work
 - Organizing your time
 - Keeping track of due dates(no extensions, lates or re-do's)
 - Preparing for exams
6. Your final mark in the dual credit course is permanent on your post-secondary transcript.
